RACE ON THE TURF

Going to Ten Point. From a Staff Correspondent of The Tribune Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 19.-Schuyler L. Parsons, president of the Coney Island Jockey Club, won the first race of his career as an owner of a racehorse this afternoon, when Tranid got down first in the maiden race at five furlongs and a half for two-year-olds. Mr. Parsons bought Tranid at the sale of the horses of the stable of the late Charles Kohler at Belmont Park, along with the Hermisnce at Belmont Park. Tranid did not do well on that occasion, and she has not behaved as well since as Mr. Parsons may have desired. But she ran this afternoon to the promise of her private trials, and the clubhouse and grandstand applauded enthusiastical. ly when she won from Brumley and Et Blod. She was one of a field of ten in Rochester, Aug. 19 .- Rochester defeated the last race, a dash of five furlongs and Nor did she hold her backers in suspense. Breaking on her toes she took the El Biod, who attempted to keep pace with the daughter of Voter and True Love, was outrun in the race to the turn and Brumley was beaten in the dash through the homestretch.

Tranid was loudly applauded when she returned to the scales, and Mr. Parsons held a levee in the clubhouse after the finish. Tranid is a full sister to Love Not, the filly which took show money in Totals ... 38 2 7 36 13 4 Totals 39 1 1-35 19 0 the Futurity of 1910, after having run away for three-quarters of a mile. not a dependable racer. Glass from blame for the defeat of Rock View. Mr. Cassidy told Mr. Belmont that is great three-year-old bolted to the side just after the start and that no jockey could have helped pulling up. Rock View has always been a bad actor at the barrier, and Mr. Cassidy promises to make him a good horse if the son of Rock Sand is sent to the schooling gate often enough. Mr. Belmont's good gelding Stromboll was beaten in a condition race, five furlongs and a half, by Richard F. Carman's Surprising. Five started, and Stromboll Surprising beat Stromboli away from the barrier, and although Stromboll caught him in the first quarter and showed the way into the homestretch, Surprising outran him on the outside and beat him home without great trouble. Nose Gay was supposed to be a good thing in the steeplechase, a gallop of two miles and a half for 'cross-country horses of better than average quality, but got home the easiest sort of winner over Gun Cotton and Lizzie Flat. Besom, first choice in the first, a gallop of three-quarters of a mile, could not run fast enough to raise a sweat, and after Briar Path had cut out the running for five-eighths of a mile, Honey Bee came on to an easy victory. The fifth fell to Undaunted, which was in front after the first furlong. Delft, who ran from a long way behind, got the place, and Old Ben

he fell at the third jump, and Octopus brought up third. SARATOGA SPRINGS ENTRIES.
